SUBJECT : Material on Possible Incident in Cuba

REFERENCE:

The Director is concerned about the possibility of an incident involving the United States in Cuba which might be created as a result of peripheral or overflights. He has indicated that he would like to draw together all material bearing on this subject for a possible presentation to the Executive Committee of the National Security Council. In view of the DD/R's considerable involvement in this area of operation, it is requested that they undertake to draw together all such material in close collaboration with the DD/I and DD/P, and review it with Mr. Elder by not later than 15 January.

*Action Cancelled
per Mr. Kirkpatrick,
